

Broadcast oversight should not be allowed to be limited to one or a few companies. To maintain the democratic principles of a free press, many companies and viewpoints are needed. Please do not allow a few companies with deep pockets to take over the media.